Unless you specify otherwise, the University will usually undertake a general search for personal data in the following areas:

For students or former students, the University will normally search:

- any School(s) in which you have studied as part of your course(s); and
- the following Services: Registry, Student Finance Office, Student Services and International Office (if you have indicated that you are an international student)

For staff or former staff, the University will normally search:

- any School(s)/Service(s) in which you have been employed; and
- Human Resources and Payroll

For people external to the University a general search of the applicable Schools/Services will be undertaken in line with the above.

Please tick below to indicate any additional areas to be searched.
